

Diversity

1 DIVERSITY POLICY

FutureGen Foundation (FGF) operate within a diverse and multicultural society and a diverse workforce will contribute to its success.

FGF will manage diversity throughout the organisation and respect diversity in the wider community.

2 PURPOSE

To support diversity within the business and when promoting Job Readiness programs to the wider community and staff and use it to its competitive advantage.

To be a flexible and responsive Foundation and an employer of choice by managing diversity throughout the organisation, and respecting diversity in the wider community.

3 SCOPE

This policy applies to employees, contractors and Directors of FGF.

Diversity can be defined as any characteristic that helps shape a person's attitude, behaviour, perspective and interpretation of what is normal.

4 KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Promote this policy

5 POLICY

FGF recognise and accept each other as unique individuals and treat each other with respect and dignity.

FGF source and retain human talent to ensure business growth and performance for its own organisation and that of its Partnerships.

FGF recognise that each employee brings their own unique capabilities, experiences and characteristics to their work. The organisation values this diversity at all levels.

FGF recruit people from all backgrounds; different cultural, linguistic and national backgrounds to provide valuable knowledge and understanding of its customers in local markets.

FGF believe that different points of view resulting from diversity promotes innovation and business success. Managing diversity makes the business more creative, flexible, productive and competitive.

FGF will leverage the benefits of a diverse workforce.

Employees recognise and respect similarities as well as differences in individual characteristics such as gender, race, age, ethnic cultural background, sexual orientation, disability, religion, education, life experience and marital status.

At FGF, it is everyone’s responsibility to act in a manner which will create and maintain a workplace environment that supports diversity and is free from discrimination, hostility and harassment.

To benefit from a diverse workforce, FGF has identified individuals from under-represented backgrounds for recruitment. These are but are not limited to:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders (ATSI)
- People from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) backgrounds
- Disadvantaged and disengaged youth
- Women in non-traditional trades or occupations
- People with an intellectual or physical disability
- People who seek to re-enter employment following a physical or mental health occurrence
- People who experience employment discrimination
- Mature age people seeking a career start or career change
- Migrants and refugees
- LGBTI or gender and sexually diverse people
